

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: Sharing or Keeping? Pre-K Puzzles in Being Fair

Young learners solve social scenarios by choosing between sharing, rule-following, and being a kind friend to build early moral reasoning skills.

---

1. If you find a colorful toy car on the playground that belongs to a friend, what is the kindest thing to do?

Answer: C) Give it back to your friend

Being a good friend (Virtue Ethics) means being honest and helping others by returning what belongs to them.

2. When we take turns on the slide so everyone gets a chance to play, we are being _____.

Answer: A) Fair

Fairness ensures that the most people are happy (Utilitarianism), making play time better for the whole group.

3. Should you follow the classroom rule to 'use walking feet' even if no teacher is watching you?

Answer: A) True

Rules are duties (Deontology) we follow to keep everyone safe, regardless of who is looking.

4. There is only one apple left. If you split it in half so you and your sister both get a snack, what are you practicing?

Answer: B) Sharing

Sharing is a virtuous action that considers the needs of others alongside your own.

5. If you accidentally break a block tower, you should tell the _____.

Answer: B) Truth

Telling the truth is a moral duty that helps fix mistakes and builds trust.

6. Is it okay to take a snack from someone else's cubby if you are really hungry?

Answer: B) False

Name: _____ Date: _____

Even if it makes you happy, taking things without permission breaks the rules of respect for others.

7. Your friend is crying because they lost their hat. What is the most helpful choice?

Answer: C) Help them look for it

Helping a friend in need shows the virtue of compassion and kindness.

8. When we use 'kind words' instead of shouting, we are being a good _____.

Answer: B) Friend

Using kind words is a character trait (Virtue) that creates a happy environment for everyone.

9. A new student has no one to play with. What should a brave and kind leader do?

Answer: B) Ask them to join your game

Inclusion is a choice that maximizes happiness and displays a welcoming character.

10. If you spill juice, should you help clean it up even if it was an accident?

Answer: A) True

Taking responsibility for our actions is an important part of doing the right thing.