

Name: _____ Date: _____

Iconic Bluey & Spidey: Advanced Kindergarten Pop Culture Secrets

Visual semiotics and hero archetypes — use this synthesis activity as a transition lesson to help students create their own cultural symbols.

1. If you see a character wearing a bright red mask and a spider web suit, what 'secret signal' is the show sending you about who they are?

- A. They are a chef cooking dinner
- B. They are a brave hero who helps people
- C. They are a sleepy turtle
- D. They are a regular person at the store

2. In the show 'Bluey,' the family plays games like 'Keepy Uppy.' This trend in the show tells us that the family values ____.

- A. Working at a big office
- B. Playing and spending time together
- C. Buying a brand new car
- D. Sleeping all day long

3. True or False: When many kids start wearing the same 'Gabby's Dollhouse' ears, it means that show is a popular trend that influences what people wear.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Imagine you see a character with a shiny gold star on their chest. What does this symbol usually represent in a story?

- A. The character is grumpy
- B. The character is a leader or someone special
- C. The character is invisible
- D. The character is a bad guy

5. When a new cartoon shows a robot and a human being best friends, it suggests that the world in the future might be ____.

- A. Scary and dark
- B. Full of mean people
- C. Kind and full of technology
- D. Exactly like the world today

6. True or False: If a character like 'Trash Truck' is best friends with a boy, the story is trying to show that friendship can be found in unexpected places.

- A. True

Name: _____ Date: _____

B. False

7. You decide to create a NEW character who loves nature. Which 'symbol' should you give them to help people understand them?

- A. A giant pizza slice
- B. A leaf-patterned cape
- C. A remote control
- D. A pile of gold coins

8. If you see a toy with bright, neon colors and fast music, the designer wants you to feel ____.

- A. Excited and energetic
- B. Sad and lonely
- C. Ready to take a nap
- D. Very confused

9. Think about why Elsa from 'Frozen' wears blue and white. What do these colors symbolize in her story?

- A. The hot desert sun
- B. Ice, snow, and her special powers
- C. Her favorite food, blueberries
- D. A grassy forest

10. True or False: When you talk to your friends about why you like a character, you are doing 'Audience Reception' analysis.

- A. True
- B. False