

Name: _____ Date: _____

Big Dreams, Small Sketches: Pre-K Writing Process Quiz

How does a story go from a thought to a drawing? Use these 10 questions to identify the basic steps of sharing ideas through pictures and marks.

---

1. Imagine you want to draw a picture of a zoo. What do you do first?

- A. Throw your crayons away
- B. Think of an idea in your head
- C. Give the paper to a friend
- D. Close your eyes and nap

2. When we draw our first picture to tell a story, we call it a ____.

- A. Lunch
- B. Draft
- C. Nap
- D. Song

3. True or False: Authors only draw or write one time and never change it.

- A. True
- B. False

4. If you add a sun to your drawing of a park to make it brighter, what are you doing?

- A. Deleting the story
- B. Fixing or revising it
- C. Going to sleep
- D. Hiding the paper

5. When your story is finished and you show it to your family, you are ____.

- A. Publishing
- B. Eating
- C. Running
- D. Sleeping

6. True or False: Squiggles and drawings are a way of writing a story.

- A. True
- B. False

7. What tool do you need to start the drafting stage?

- A. A spoon
- B. A pillow
- C. A crayon or pencil

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. A shoe

8. If you find a mistake and fix it, you are ____.

A. Singing

B. Editing

C. Dancing

D. Jumping

9. True or False: Planning is when we think about what we want to draw before we start.

A. True

B. False

10. Where is a good place to publish your work at home?

A. Under the bed

B. On the refrigerator

C. In the trash can

D. Inside a dark closet