Answer Key: Super Sportsman Kindergarten Game Quiz

Turn-taking, emotional regulation, and inclusive play. These scenario-based questions help young learners apply fair play to everyday schoolyard games.

1. Your friend falls down while you are playing tag. What is the best thing to do?

Answer: B) Stop and ask if they are okay

Caring for others is more important than winning. Helping a friend shows respect and kindness in sports.

2. If you lose a game, it is okay to shout at the other team.

Answer: B) False

Losing can be hard, but good sportsmanship means staying calm and being kind even when we don't win.

3. When the game is over, we say '____ game' to the other players.

Answer: C) Good

Saying 'Good game' shows that you appreciate the effort everyone put into playing together.

4. The gym teacher says the ball was 'out,' but you think it was 'in.' What should you do?

Answer: C) Listen to the teacher and keep playing

Respecting the person in charge (the official) helps the game stay fair and fun for everyone.

5. A good sport always follows the ____ of the game.

Answer: A) rules

Rules ensure that everyone has an equal chance to play and that the game is safe.

6. Cheating is a good way to make sure everyone has fun.

Answer: B) False

Cheating is unfair and makes the game less enjoyable for other people.

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. There is a new student who doesn't know how to play kickball. What should you do?

Answer: B) Invite them to join and show them what to do

Being inclusive means inviting others to join, which builds a better community of players.

8. When it is someone else's turn to hit the ball, you should ____ for them.

Answer: C) cheer

Encouraging your teammates and even your opponents shows a positive attitude.

9. It is important to wait for your turn during a relay race.

Answer: A) True

Waiting your turn is a key part of fair play and following the structure of the sport.

10. Your team wins the race! How should you act?

Answer: C) Be happy but don't brag or boast

Winning with humility means being happy about your success without making others feel bad.
