

Name: _____ Date: _____

Star Spotlight: A Kindergarten Creative Trends Quest

Little learners design pop-star looks and predict movie magic through multi-step creative challenges and synthesis of sound and style.

1. You are a movie director! If you want to make a movie about a happy sunshine kingdom, which music and costume should you pick together?

- A. Slow, sad piano and heavy black raincoats
- B. Fast, bouncy drums and bright yellow capes
- C. Spooky whispering and dark purple masks
- D. No music at all and pajamas

2. Imagine a famous singer wants to protect the ocean. To show this trend to the world, they should wear a dress made of _____.

- A. Metal spoons
- B. Recycled plastic bottles
- C. New paper towels
- D. Cotton candy

3. A person can lead a new trend by wearing something nobody has ever seen before, like a hat made of real flowers.

- A. True
- B. False

4. If a new dance trend uses robot sounds, what kind of clothes would make the dance look even better?

- A. Soft, fuzzy sweaters
- B. Old-fashioned cowboy boots
- C. Shiny silver jackets that glow
- D. Flowy grass skirts

5. When a movie about space becomes very popular, kids at school might start a trend of wearing _____ backpacks.

- A. Rocket ship
- B. Dinosaur
- C. Jungle
- D. Farmer

6. You want to start a 'Kindness Trend.' How could you use fashion and music to help people be nice?

- A. Wear shirts with angry faces and play loud screaming music
- B. Wear shirts with heart pockets and sing songs about sharing
- C. Wear plain brown socks and listen to silence

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. Wear a giant box so nobody can see you

7. Movie characters never change the way people dress in real life.

- A. True
- B. False

8. If you hear a song with a very fast beat, which fashion trend usually goes with that energy?

- A. Heavy winter coats and big boots
- B. Fancy long dresses and high heels
- C. Snuggly pajamas and slippers
- D. Colorful sneakers and stretchy clothes for moving

9. A 'Global Trend' means people in many different _____ are all liking the same thing at once.

- A. Closets
- B. Countries
- C. Backyards
- D. Bedrooms

10. Mixing old styles from grandmas with new styles from today is one way to create a brand new trend.

- A. True
- B. False