

Name: _____ Date: _____

Your Guardian Shield: A Pre-K Cyber Safety Quest

How can our smallest digital citizens stay safe while exploring? Guide students through complex privacy scenarios to build foundational security instincts.

1. You find a glowing 'Free Toy' button on your tablet that you didn't ask for. What is the safest way to handle this surprise?

- A. Press it quickly to get the toy
- B. Tell an adult and don't touch it
- C. Give it your name so it can ship
- D. Show a friend at school

2. If a nice person in a game asks for your real home address, it is okay to tell them as long as you are being polite.

- A. True
- B. False

3. A strong digital 'lock' for your tablet should be a secret _____ that only you and your parents know.

- A. Color
- B. Picture
- C. Password
- D. Song

4. You are making an avatar for a new game. Which 'Secret Identity' name is the safest choice to protect your privacy?

- A. Leo_Smith_2019
- B. Main_Street_Kid
- C. Super_Space_Bunny
- D. Kindergarten_Kate

5. Every person you meet on the internet is always exactly who they say they are in their profile picture.

- A. True
- B. False

6. Your tablet starts making a loud buzzing sound and shows a scary red face. What is your first 'Safety Step'?

- A. Hide the tablet under a pillow
- B. Turn it off and tell a teacher
- C. Try to fix it yourself
- D. Keep playing anyway

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. When you want to download a new app, you should look for the _____ seal that shows an adult has checked it for safety.

- A. Approved
- B. Shiny
- C. Funny
- D. Secret

8. A screen pops up asking for your 'Grandma's Phone Number' to keep playing. What should you do?

- A. Type the number from memory
- B. Ask Grandma for the number
- C. Close the screen immediately
- D. Guess the numbers

9. Taking a picture of your school's name and posting it online is a safe way to show your friends where you go.

- A. True
- B. False

10. Before you share a photo of your face, you must ask a _____ for permission to make sure it is safe.

- A. Grown-up
- B. Pet
- C. Mirror
- D. Neighbor