

Name: _____ Date: _____

Style, Sound, and Screen: A 2nd Grade Trendsetters Quiz

Visual analysis, pattern recognition, and cultural evaluation. Students critique how costume choices and musical beats influence our daily feelings and fashion.

1. Imagine a new movie comes out where every hero wears a bright neon green hat. What will most likely happen at the clothing store next week?

- A. The store will stop selling hats forever.
- B. The store will start selling many neon green hats because fans want to look like the heroes.
- C. The store will only sell blue shoes.
- D. Nothing will change at the store.

2. If a famous singer starts wearing pajamas on stage, it might make other people feel that it is okay to wear comfy clothes in public.

- A. True
- B. False

3. In a movie about the future, the characters use recycled trash to make sparkly capes. This trend is trying to teach the audience about _____.

- A. Eating more candy
- B. How to sleep better
- C. Protecting the environment
- D. Learning to bark like a dog

4. Why do filmmakers use fast, loud music during an action scene where a character is running?

- A. To make the audience feel sleepy.
- B. To make the audience feel excited and nervous.
- C. Because they ran out of quiet music.
- D. To tell the audience the movie is over.

5. Trends in fashion and music stay exactly the same for 100 years and never change.

- A. True
- B. False

6. If a cartoon character wears a specific type of fancy sneakers, and then many kids buy those sneakers, this is called a _____.

- A. Bedtime story
- B. Science experiment
- C. Math equation
- D. Cultural trend

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Which of these is the best example of a trend coming from a video game into real life?

- A. A student doing a dance move at recess that they saw their game character do.
- B. A student eating an apple for lunch.
- C. A student reading a book about dinosaurs.
- D. A student tying their shoelaces.

8. Fashion trends can help tell a story about where a person is from or what they believe in.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If you see a movie where the hero wears a cape made of a flag from a different country, what is the director likely trying to show?

- A. That the hero is cold.
- B. That different cultures and countries are important.
- C. That the hero forgot their real clothes.
- D. That the movie is a silent movie.

10. When musicians use computers to make 'space sounds' in their songs, they are using _____ to change how music sounds.

- A. Magic wands
- B. Paint brushes
- C. Technology
- D. Old newspapers