

Name: _____ Date: _____

Your Neighborhood Ruler: A 1st Grade Geopolitics Adventure Quiz

How do leaders decide where to put a park or a fence? Synthesize how shared spaces and rules help neighbors live together peacefully.

1. Two schools want to use the same big field for a soccer game at the same time. What is the best way for them to solve this problem fairly?

- A. The school with the most students takes the whole field.
- B. Both schools agree on a schedule to share the field.
- C. The schools stop playing soccer forever.
- D. They build a tall wall right through the middle of the field.

2. A king or queen can decide to move a mountain because they don't like where it is sitting.

- A. True
- B. False

3. If a town has a river that everyone needs for water, the leaders must create a ___ to make sure no one takes too much.

- A. Secret
- B. Party
- C. Rule
- D. Mountain

4. Countries often become friends because they want to help each other protect their land.

- A. True
- B. False

5. Imagine you are the leader of a town built on a high, rocky hill. Why might other towns find it hard to visit you?

- A. Because they don't like the color of the rocks.
- B. Because the steep hill is hard to climb.
- C. Because there are too many ice cream shops.
- D. Because the hill is made of chocolate.

6. A line that shows where one person's yard ends and another person's yard begins is called a ___.

- A. River
- B. Boundary
- C. Bridge
- D. Forest

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Your town has a lot of apple trees, but no clean water. The town next door has a lake but no food. What should you do?

- A. Build a wall and keep all the apples.
- B. Wait for it to rain apples.
- C. Trade apples for water so everyone has both.
- D. Move to a different planet.

8. An island surrounded by water is easier for an army to walk into than a flat field.

- A. True
- B. False

9. When two leaders shake hands and promise to help each other, they are making a(n) ____.

- A. Toy
- B. Map
- C. Agreement
- D. Mountain

10. If you want to build a bridge across a river to visit your friend, why do you need to talk to the friend first?

- A. Because you might need to use their land for the bridge.
- B. Because they might not like the color blue.
- C. Because the bridge is made of paper.
- D. Because you are scared of water.