

Name: _____ Date: _____

Bluey's Best Bestie Manners: A 3rd Grade Chat Quiz

Master the art of polite conversation with this Everyday Communication Quiz designed to help 3rd graders practice active listening and social cues.

1. When you are talking to a friend, what does it mean to make 'eye contact'?

- A. Looking at your shoes while they talk
- B. Looking at the person's eyes to show you are listening
- C. Closing your eyes until they are finished speaking
- D. Looking at the clock to see what time it is

2. What is the best thing to do when someone else is speaking in a group?

- A. Wait for them to finish before you start talking
- B. Talk louder than them so people hear you
- C. Walk away while they are still talking
- D. Interrupt them if you have a better idea

3. If you don't understand what someone just said, how should you ask for help?

- A. Say 'What? That made no sense!'
- B. Pretend you understood and nod your head
- C. Politely ask, 'Could you please explain that again?'
- D. Start talking about a completely different topic

4. Which of these is an example of an 'Inside Voice'?

- A. Shouting to a friend across the playground
- B. Cheering loudly at a football game
- C. Speaking at a quiet, calm volume in the classroom
- D. Screaming because you saw a spider

5. What is 'Body Language'?

- A. A secret code written on paper
- B. The way we use our movements and posture to communicate
- C. A type of exercise you do in Gym class
- D. The words we choose to say out loud