

Name: _____ Date: _____

Which Way Will You Play? Your Kindergarten Guide to Personalities

Evaluate how different friends react to a shared toy while moving from observing basic traits to analyzing social interactions.

1. Scenario: Leo sees a brand new playground. Instead of running to the slide, he sits back and watches how other kids play first. What is Leo doing?

- A. Being mean to the other children
- B. Using observation to understand his environment
- C. Forgetting how to use a slide
- D. Waiting for his mom to give him a snack

2. True or False: If Sarah is usually very quiet at school but very loud at her birthday party, it means her personality changed completely.

- A. True
- B. False

3. Scenario: Maya loves to paint alone. Her teacher says she has a 'Target Trait.' If Maya prefers being by herself to recharge, we call her _____.

- A. An Extrovert
- B. An Introvert
- C. An Athlete
- D. A Sleepyhead

4. Two friends find a sparkly rock. Kai wants to keep it because it is pretty (the Id). Sam wants to find the owner because it's the right thing to do. Sam represents the:

- A. Hungry part of the brain
- B. Silly side of personality
- C. Moral side (Superego)
- D. Forgetful side of the brain

5. Scenario: Ben believes he can build the tallest block tower because he practiced every day. This 'I can do it' feeling is called _____.

- A. Self-efficacy
- B. Being bossy
- C. Looking for toys
- D. Feeling tired

6. True or False: Every human being has a 'Best Version' of themselves they are trying to grow into, like a seed turning into a flower.

- A. True

Name: _____ Date: _____

B. False

7. When Kim copies how her teacher kindly says 'Please,' she is learning her personality through:

- A. Taking a long nap
- B. Reading a math book
- C. Observational learning
- D. Eating her lunch fast

8. If a child is 'Highly Agreeable,' they are most likely to _____ when a friend asks to share a cookie.

- A. Say no and run away
- B. Cry loudly
- C. Share the cookie happily
- D. Hide the cookie

9. Why might two kids react differently to a rainy day? One is sad because they can't go out; one is happy to splash in puddles. This is because:

- A. The rain is different for both
- B. Their personalities change their perspective
- C. One child does not have boots
- D. The sun is actually out

10. True or False: Your 'Ideal Self' is the person you are right this second, including all your mistakes.

- A. True
- B. False