

Name: _____ Date: _____

Crack the Cartoon Code: Kindergarten Pop Culture Quiz

Visual decoding, character patterns, and color symbolism — an engaging station activity for identifying why our favorite media looks and acts the way it does.

1. If a brand new cartoon animal has huge, sparkling eyes and moves very slowly, what is the show trying to tell us about them?

- A. They are a scary monster.
- B. They are mean and loud.
- C. They are cute and friendly.
- D. They are a fast superhero.

2. True or False: If a toy has a bright recycling symbol on the box, the company wants us to think about helping the Earth.

- A. True
- B. False

3. In many superhero movies, a character wearing a long, dark ____ often looks like they are mysterious or powerful.

- A. Socks
- B. Cape
- C. Scarf
- D. Hat

4. Imagine everyone at school starts wearing yellow shoelaces because of a popular video game. Why are they doing this?

- A. They lost their old shoes.
- B. They are following a trend.
- C. The school told them they had to.
- D. Yellow is the only color left.

5. True or False: If a character in a space movie carries a glowing sword, it represents that they are just a normal farmer.

- A. True
- B. False

6. When a music video shows kids dancing in a group, it is trying to show that the music is for ____.

- A. Sleeping
- B. Grown-ups only
- C. Eating
- D. Friends and fun

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Look at two lunchboxes. One has robots and one has unicorns. What is the main difference in these pop culture stories?

- A. One is about magic and one is about technology.
- B. One is for lunch and one is for breakfast.
- C. Both are exactly the same story.
- D. Neither one has a story.

8. True or False: If a character has a 'thumbs up' on their shirt, it usually means they are feeling grumpy.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If a movie character lives in a house made of candy, the audience knows the story will be ____.

- A. Boring
- B. Very scary
- C. Whimsical or silly
- D. A history lesson

10. Why do some cartoon villains wear spiky clothes and dark colors like purple or black?

- A. They want to look soft and cuddly.
- B. Because they are going to bed.
- C. Those colors mean it is time to eat.
- D. To show the audience they might be dangerous.