

Name: _____

Date: _____

Full-Court Philosophy: The 10th Grade Sportsmanship Showdown

Sophomores analyze complex ethical dilemmas, cross-cultural competitive norms, and restorative justice practices in high-stakes athletic scenarios during this rigorous formative assessment.

---

1. In the concept of 'Gamesmanship' versus 'Sportsmanship,' which of the following actions at the high school level best illustrates an ethical breach of sportsmanship through intentional psychological manipulation?

- A. A goalkeeper studying an opponent's penalty kick history prior to a match.
- B. A defensive lineman loudly shouting 'Hike!' to induce a false start on the offense.
- C. A basketball coach calling a timeout specifically to 'ice' a kicker or free-throw shooter.
- D. A tennis player taking a legitimate medical timeout for a diagnosed cramp.

2. The 'Spirit of the Game' in sports like Ultimate Frisbee relies on the absence of third-party officials, placing the burden of conflict resolution entirely on the competitors.

- A. True
- B. False

3. In 10th grade competitive theory, _____ is the term for the unwritten rules and codes of conduct that supplement the official rulebook in various sports cultures.

- A. Standard Operating Procedure
- B. Etiquette
- C. Tactical Advantage
- D. Arbitration

4. When a varsity athlete publicly criticizes a referee's judgment on social media, which principle of sportsmanship is compromised at the systemic level?

- A. The preservation of the institution's integrity
- B. The individual's right to freedom of expression
- C. The tactical execution of the team's defensive strategy
- D. The physiological recovery of the athlete

5. If a wrestling coach instructs an athlete to intentionally lose a match to secure a better seed in the regional playoffs, this is considered a valid strategic application of sportsmanship.

- A. True
- B. False

6. During the 1936 Olympics, Luz Long advised Jesse Owens on his takeoff point despite being his direct rival. This act of _____ demonstrated prioritization of human excellence over nationalistic victory.

- A. Co-opetition
- B. Altruism

Name: _____

Date: _____

- C. Collusion
- D. Nepotism

7. In the context of 'Running up the score' against a significantly weaker opponent, what is the most sportsmanlike approach for a leading team's coach?

- A. Telling players to stop trying and stand still on the field.
- B. Rotating in bench players and focusing on fundamental execution rather than aggressive scoring.
- C. Demanding the starters continue to score to ensure the opponent learns a lesson.
- D. Forfeiting the game immediately to save the opponent from further embarrassment.

8. Respect for officials includes accepting their errors as a human element of the game that levels out over time.

- A. True
- B. False

9. When an athlete acknowledges their mistake and takes steps to fix the damage caused to the team or opponent, they are practicing _____ justice within the sporting community.

- A. Retributive
- B. Restorative
- C. Distributive
- D. Procedural

10. The concept of 'Kudos' in ancient Greek competition was not just about the win, but how the win was achieved. Which modern term best captures this legacy?

- A. Win-at-all-costs
- B. Moral Courage
- C. Competitive Parity
- D. Athletic Meritocracy