

Name: _____ Date: _____

Synthesizing Authority: 11th Grade Scholarly Citation Quiz

Scholars refine their academic integrity by evaluating source bias and mastering the nuances of recursive research and complex CMOS/APA styling.

1. When synthesizing multiple perspectives on the 'Panopticon' theory by Michel Foucault, which research strategy best ensures a balanced academic argument?

- A. Prioritizing primary sources that only support your initial thesis statement.
- B. Utilizing lateral reading to verify the ideological leanings of different commentators.
- C. Relying exclusively on the most recent digital blog posts for currency.
- D. Summarizing one central source and ignoring dissenting peer-reviewed data.

2. In a 11th-grade college-prep essay, 'common knowledge' (which does not require citation) includes specific statistical data points found during specialized archival research.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When a researcher uses a source found within another source (e.g., reading about Judith Butler's ideas in a textbook by Smith), it is known as a _____ source.

- A. Tertiary
- B. Indirect
- C. Primary
- D. Ghosted

4. In the Chicago Manual of Style (CMOS), which element is strictly required in a footnote for a journal article that is NOT required in an MLA in-text citation?

- A. The author's last name
- B. The page number referenced
- C. The publication city and publisher
- D. The title of the article in quotation marks

5. A DOI (Digital Object Identifier) is considered more stable and reliable than a URL for citing academic journal articles found in databases like JSTOR.

- A. True
- B. False

6. The CRAAP test is a common heuristic for evaluating sources. The 'R' in this acronym stands for _____, which assesses how the info fits your specific needs.

- A. Reliability
- B. Refutation
- C. Relevance

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. Readability

7. You are researching the impact of the 'Great Migration' on urban jazz. Which source represents the highest level of scholarly authority for this topic?

- A. A viral thread on social media by a music enthusiast.
- B. A peer-reviewed monograph published by an Ivy League university press.
- C. A brief encyclopedia entry from 1992.
- D. An anonymous editorial in a local city newspaper.

8. In APA style, which emphasizes the timeliness of research, the _____ must be placed immediately following the author's name in the in-text citation.

- A. Article Title
- B. Page Number
- C. Year of Publication
- D. DOI Link

9. If you paraphrase a complex idea from a secondary source using your own unique sentence structure, you no longer need to provide an in-text citation.

- A. True
- B. False

10. Which of the following describes 'Recursive Research' at the advanced high school level?

- A. Finding one source and stopping your search immediately.
- B. Alphabetizing your Works Cited page before you write the draft.
- C. Returning to search tools to find new sources after your initial findings reshape your thesis.
- D. Using a search engine to find synonyms for technical keywords.