

Name: _____ Date: _____

Bibliographic Hunting: A 3rd Grade Source Citation Quiz

Fact-checking, author identification, and title recognition for beginner researchers. This foundational assessment builds early integrity in non-fiction writing tasks.

---

1. If you are writing a report about the Moon, which of these is the most reliable place to find facts?

- A. A personal blog about a dream someone had
- B. A comic book about space aliens
- C. An encyclopedia article written by a scientist
- D. A drawing you made in art class

2. True or False: When you use a fact from a book, you should tell your reader the name of the book you used.

- A. True
- B. False

3. The person who wrote the book is called the _____.

- A. Illustrator
- B. Author
- C. Publisher
- D. Librarian

4. You find a great fact in a book called 'The Life of Sea Turtles' by Elena Gomez. What is the title of this source?

- A. Elena Gomez
- B. Sea Turtles
- C. The Life of Sea Turtles
- D. A Book about Turtles

5. When you write down words exactly as they appear in a book, you are using a _____.

- A. Guess
- B. Secret
- C. Direct Quote
- D. Paraphrase

6. True or False: If you find information on the internet, you don't need to say which website it came from.

- A. True
- B. False

7. Which of these is a reason why we use citations in our school projects?

Name: _____ Date: _____

- A. To make the paper look longer
- B. To give credit to the person who did the work
- C. To show off how many books we have
- D. To confuse our friends

8. To find the year a book was made, you look for the _____ date.

- A. Expiration
- B. Birthday
- C. Due
- D. Copyright

9. True or False: Using someone else's words as your own without telling anyone is called plagiarism.

- A. True
- B. False

10. Where is the best place to look for the author's name and the title of a book?

- A. The back cover
- B. The title page
- C. Page 50
- D. The table of contents