

Name: _____ Date: _____

Wrangle the Referee's Mind: A 5th Grade Sportsmanship Dissection

Evaluate high-stakes competitive dilemmas where ethics collide with the scoreboard to build leadership skills and situational integrity.

---

1. During a regional fencing match, an electronic sensor fails to record a touch by your opponent. If you choose to acknowledge the point even though it means you lose the match, which principle are you prioritizing?

- A. Strategic manipulation
- B. Integrity over outcome
- C. Passive observation
- D. Referee fallibility

2. A team captain who calmly asks a referee for clarification on a complex ruling is demonstrating poor sportsmanship because they are questioning authority.

- A. True
- B. False

3. In professional golf, players often call penalties on themselves for minor infractions that no one else saw. This practice is a primary example of ____.

- A. Self-regulation
- B. External monitoring
- C. Public relations
- D. Rule avoidance

4. An opposing player goes down with a localized injury during a fast-break in a basketball tournament. What is the most 'ethically sound' action for the player with the ball to take?

- A. Score immediately before the whistle blows
- B. Stop play to ensure the opponent receives medical attention
- C. Wait for the coach to tell them what to do
- D. Pretend they didn't see the injury to avoid guilt

5. When a team uses a loophole in the rules to gain an unfair advantage that violates the 'spirit of the game,' they are lacking ____.

- A. Tactical awareness
- B. Moral courage
- C. Competitive drive
- D. Physical stamina

6. True sportsmanship requires an athlete to maintain the same level of respect for an opponent regardless of whether the opponent is playing fairly or unfairly.

Name: _____ Date: _____

- A. True
- B. False

7. Which of these scenarios represents a 'constructive' way to handle a loss in a high-stakes championship?

- A. Leaving the field immediately to process emotions privately
- B. Analyzing the opponent's strategy to learn for future improvement
- C. Pointing out the mistakes the officials made during the game
- D. Blaming teammates for not following the defensive plan

8. A player who celebrates a goal by mocking the opposing team's crowd is failing to demonstrate ____.

- A. Humility
- B. Agility
- C. Coordination
- D. Persistence

9. In the context of competitive ethics, why is 'intent' more important than the actual 'outcome' of a play?

- A. Intent is what determines the score
- B. Outcome is all that fans care about
- C. Intent reflects the true character and sportsmanship of the athlete
- D. Referees only penalize based on intent

10. During a cross-country race, helping a fallen competitor from another school reach the finish line is considered a violation of the 'spirit of competition.'

- A. True
- B. False