

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: Sharing or Keeping? Pre-K Ethics and Character Quiz

Picture-based scenarios help early learners identify prosocial behaviors like honesty and kindness during circle time or social-emotional learning blocks.

1. If you see a friend sitting all alone and looking sad, what is the kind thing to do?

Answer: B) Ask them to play with you

Inviting someone to play is a way to show the virtue of kindness and make others feel happy.

2. Being a good friend means sharing your toys with others.

Answer: A) True

Sharing is a helpful action that shows we care about our friends' happiness.

3. When we tell the truth about what happened, we are being _____.

Answer: B) Honest

Honesty means telling the truth, which is an important rule for everyone to follow.

4. You accidentally knock over a tower your friend built. What should you do?

Answer: C) Say sorry and help fix it

Taking responsibility and helping to fix a mistake is the right way to treat others.

5. It is okay to take a snack that belongs to someone else without asking.

Answer: B) False

Respecting other people's things is a basic rule of doing what is right.

6. Helping a teacher clean up the classroom is a _____ choice.

Answer: A) Helper

Cleaning up helps the whole group, which is a key part of group ethics.

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Which of these looks like 'Fairness' on the playground?

Answer: A) Taking turns on the slide

Fairness means following rules so that everyone gets a chance to have fun.

8. If you find a lost crayon, you should try to find its owner.

Answer: A) True

Returning things that don't belong to us shows we are trustworthy.

9. Using 'Gentle Hands' with our friends is a _____ way to play.

Answer: B) Safe

Following the rule to be gentle keeps everyone safe and happy.

10. What should you do if you see a friend crying?

Answer: B) Ask them if they need a hug or help

Showing empathy and caring for others' feelings is a very important virtue.