

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sharing or Keeping? Pre-K Ethics and Character Quiz

Picture-based scenarios help early learners identify prosocial behaviors like honesty and kindness during circle time or social-emotional learning blocks.

1. If you see a friend sitting all alone and looking sad, what is the kind thing to do?

- A. Walk away and play by yourself
- B. Ask them to play with you
- C. Take their toy
- D. Hide behind a tree

2. Being a good friend means sharing your toys with others.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we tell the truth about what happened, we are being _____.

- A. Angry
- B. Honest
- C. Sleepy
- D. Fast

4. You accidentally knock over a tower your friend built. What should you do?

- A. Run away so they don't see you
- B. Blame it on someone else
- C. Say sorry and help fix it
- D. Laugh at the broken tower

5. It is okay to take a snack that belongs to someone else without asking.

- A. True
- B. False

6. Helping a teacher clean up the classroom is a _____ choice.

- A. Helper
- B. Mean
- C. Sad
- D. Bad

7. Which of these looks like 'Fairness' on the playground?

- A. Taking turns on the slide
- B. Cutting in line
- C. Staying at the top of the slide

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. Pushing to go first

8. If you find a lost crayon, you should try to find its owner.

- A. True
- B. False

9. Using 'Gentle Hands' with our friends is a _____ way to play.

- A. Scary
- B. Safe
- C. Loud
- D. Harmful

10. What should you do if you see a friend crying?

- A. Tell them to be quiet
- B. Ask them if they need a hug or help
- C. Make a funny face and point
- D. Keep playing and ignore them