

Name: _____ Date: _____

Conquer the Home Front: WWII Synthesis for Pre-K Heroes

Challenge young thinkers to evaluate resource sharing and analyze community roles through high-level situational reasoning and social-emotional problem solving.

1. If your community has only one bag of flour left to make bread for soldiers, what is the most helpful way to use it?

- A. Keep it all for your own family's snacks
- B. Share it so everyone can help make food
- C. Hide the flour so no one can find it
- D. Throw the flour away because it's heavy

2. When many people left to help the war, communities had to _____ their roles to make sure work still got done.

- A. ignore
- B. stop
- C. change
- D. forget

3. True or False: Growing a 'Victory Garden' was a way for children to help provide food for their country when stores were low.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Imagine you are a leader during the war. Why would you ask people to collect old scrap metal and rubber?

- A. To make the playground look messy
- B. To build toys for animals
- C. To build tools and ships for the military
- D. To make heavy jewelry for everyone

5. The Tuskegee Airmen proved that being _____ and working hard is more important than what a person looks like.

- A. tall
- B. brave
- C. quiet
- D. fast

6. True or False: During the war, some families had to use special stamps to buy shoes because materials were needed for soldiers' boots.

- A. True

Name: _____ Date: _____

B. False

7. If you were a Navajo Code Talker, your job would be to use a secret language to keep messages safe. Why is a secret language useful?

- A. It makes the radio sound like music
- B. It keeps others from knowing the plan
- C. It helps people fall asleep faster
- D. It makes the messages very loud

8. To help people stay safe, some cities had _____ where they turned off all the lights at night.

- A. parties
- B. blackouts
- C. naps
- D. parades

9. True or False: During WWII, people did not need to work together because one person could do everything alone.

- A. True
- B. False

10. The WASP (Women Airforce Service Pilots) flew planes across the country. What does this show about who can be a pilot?

- A. Only people who like the color blue
- B. Only people who have many toys
- C. Anyone who has the skill and training
- D. Only people who are very old