

Name: _____ Date: _____

Nail Your Narrative and Beyond: 6th Grade Essay Essentials Quiz

Can you distinguish a data-driven report from a vivid travelogue? Practice identifying the core purposes and structures of standard essay forms.

---

1. Imagine you are writing an essay for your school newspaper about the day the local animal shelter had a surprise visit from a famous athlete. Which essay type would you use to tell this story?

- A. Expository
- B. Narrative
- C. Persuasive
- D. Argumentative

2. A descriptive essay focuses primarily on sharing facts and statistics about a specific scientific process.

- A. True
- B. False

3. A student writes an essay meant to change the reader's mind about a new school lunch policy. This is known as a _____ essay.

- A. Descriptive
- B. Narrative
- C. Persuasive
- D. Historical

4. Which of these topics would best fit an expository essay for a 6th-grade science class?

- A. My favorite memory of seeing a volcano
- B. Why everyone should visit a volcano once
- C. A step-by-step explanation of how a volcano erupts
- D. The feeling of heat and the smell of sulfur at a volcano

5. The main goal of a _____ essay is to paint a vivid picture in the reader's mind using descriptors like 'crisp,' 'rushing,' and 'golden.'

- A. Expository
- B. Narrative
- C. Descriptive
- D. Persuasive

6. An argumentative essay usually includes a claim supported by evidence and may acknowledge a counterargument.

- A. True
- B. False

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. If you are writing about the sounds, smells, and sights of a local farmers' market without telling a story or taking a side, you are writing a:

- A. Persuasive essay
- B. Descriptive essay
- C. Narrative essay
- D. Argumentative essay

8. In a 6th-grade transition essay about 'How My Life Changed After Elementary School,' the author is most likely writing a _____ essay.

- A. Narrative
- B. Expository
- C. Descriptive
- D. Academic

9. The primary goal of an expository essay is to entertain the reader with a fictional plot.

- A. True
- B. False

10. Identify the essay type: 'An essay comparing the lives of two famous inventors, Thomas Edison and Nikola Tesla, focusing on their actual inventions and dates.'

- A. Narrative
- B. Expository
- C. Descriptive
- D. Persuasive