

Name: _____ Date: _____

Wrangle the Rules: A Kindergarten Fairness Quiz

Challenge young citizens to identify fair sharing and leadership choices in familiar classroom scenarios.

1. If there is only one swing and three friends want to play, what is the fair thing to do?

- A. Keep the swing all for yourself
- B. Take turns using a timer
- C. Run away so no one plays
- D. Hide the swing seat

2. A good leader in a classroom listens to what other students have to say.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we make a _____ together, everyone should follow it so we stay safe.

- A. Mess
- B. Noise
- C. Rule
- D. Secret

4. Who is usually the 'leader' who helps make decisions in your classroom?

- A. The school bus
- B. The chalkboard
- C. The teacher
- D. The lunch tray

5. Being fair means the biggest person always gets the most toys.

- A. True
- B. False

6. If the class wants to pick a treat, and 10 kids want apples but 2 kids want cookies, which one wins in a vote?

- A. Apples
- B. Cookies
- C. Nothing
- D. The principal chooses

7. When friends share a snack equally, they are practicing _____.

- A. Running
- B. Fairness
- C. Sleeping

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. Shouting

8. A rule that says 'No one can talk' during a nap time helps everyone rest.

- A. True
- B. False

9. What is something a student is 'allowed' to do because it is their right in class?

- A. Throw blocks at friends
- B. Ask a question to help learn
- C. Draw on someone else's paper
- D. Take a lunch that isn't theirs

10. If you see a friend who is sad and has no one to play with, being a good _____ means inviting them to join your group.

- A. Bird
- B. Citizen
- C. Statue
- D. Cloud