

Name: _____ Date: _____

Dissect Precise Imagery: A 6th Grade Adjectives Challenge

Bridge the gap between simple modifiers and evocative descriptions using nuanced comparative forms and subtle shades of meaning for narrative writing.

---

1. In the sentence, 'The former governor spoke with a resonant voice,' identifies the demonstrative adjective.

- A. former
- B. governor
- C. resonant
- D. voice

2. Complete the analysis: While 'bright' is a descriptive adjective, the word 'sixteen' in the phrase 'sixteen satellites' is a ____ adjective.

- A. demonstrative
- B. comparative
- C. quantitative
- D. superlative

3. The word 'unique' is a superlative adjective that should never be paired with 'most' or 'more' because its meaning is already absolute.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Which sentence uses a superlative adjective to evaluate the intensity of a natural phenomenon?

- A. The wind was fiercer than yesterday.
- B. That was the most devastating hurricane in a decade.
- C. A cold front moved across the plains.
- D. Those clouds look quite ominous.

5. Identify the role of the underlined word: 'The ____ findings of the study contradicted the earlier results.'

- A. latest
- B. more late
- C. latter
- D. late

6. In the phrase 'this ancient parchment,' the word 'this' is a demonstrative adjective because it points out a specific noun in space or time.

- A. True
- B. False

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Compare the two items: 'The obsidian sculpture was ____ than the marble one.' Which adjective fits the comparative context accurately?

- A. most fragile
- B. fragiler
- C. more fragile
- D. fragilest

8. Select the adjective that provides the most vivid sensory detail: 'The hiker paused to drink from the ____ mountain stream.'

- A. some
- B. glacial
- C. that
- D. good

9. The sentence 'He had many ideas' uses a quantitative adjective.

- A. True
- B. False

10. Which of these contains an adjective modifying a pronoun?

- A. The tall skyscraper loomed.
- B. Something cold touched my shoulder.
- C. I saw three birds.
- D. That book is mine.