

Name: _____ Date: _____

Your Blueey-Inspired Pre-K Story Spark Adventure Quiz

Imagine and build complex narrative worlds by connecting character emotions to landscape changes in this multi-step creative challenge.

---

1. If your character, Paws the Puppy, finds a 'Magic Key' and a 'Tiny Door,' what is the best way to combine them to start a story?

- A. Paws eats the key for a snack
- B. Paws uses the key to open the door and finds a hidden forest
- C. Paws throws the door into the trash
- D. Paws goes to sleep next to the door

2. True or False: To make a story more exciting, you can change the weather from sunny to stormy when a character feels sad.

- A. True
- B. False

3. A dragon who loves to bake cookies instead of breathing fire is an example of a character with a unique _____.

- A. Crayon
- B. Hat
- C. Trait
- D. Bed

4. To show a character is 'Brave' without saying the word, what should the character do?

- A. Run away and hide under a blanket
- B. Cry because they are scared
- C. Take a deep breath and climb the tall mountain
- D. Ask someone else to do the hard work

5. If you are writing a story about 'The Land of Candy,' the ground should be made of _____.

- A. Brown Dirt
- B. Hard Green Grass
- C. Chocolate Sprinkles
- D. Cold Water

6. True or False: A story must always have a beginning, a middle, and an end to help the reader understand the adventure.

- A. True
- B. False

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Your character is a Moon-Rabbit. They need to get to Earth to visit a friend. How do they get there creatively?

- A. They walk on their paws
- B. They slide down a rainbow made of stardust
- C. They stay on the moon and do nothing
- D. They close their eyes and sleep

8. When two characters talk to each other in a story, we call this _____.

- A. Running
- B. Dialogue
- C. Sleeping
- D. Eating

9. True or False: You can create a hero character who is very small, like an ant, instead of big and strong.

- A. True
- B. False

10. If your story ends with 'The Sun went to sleep and the stars started to giggle,' what kind of mood did you create?

- A. A scary, dark mood
- B. A peaceful and magical mood
- C. An angry and loud mood
- D. A sad and lonely mood