

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tiny Leaders Giant Choices Pre-K Ethics Quiz

Challenge young thinkers to design fair playground rules and balance sharing with personal space in this advanced social-contract simulation.

---

1. If there is only one royal crown in the dress-up box and four friends want to wear it at the same time, what is the most 'just' way to solve the problem?

- A. The fastest runner keeps it forever
- B. Hide the crown so no one can play
- C. Use a sand timer so everyone gets a turn
- D. Only the tallest person wears it

2. A good 'classroom law' should apply to everyone, even the teacher.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we all agree to sit in a circle so everyone can see the book, we are making a ____.

- A. Secret
- B. Promise to the group
- C. Wall
- D. Nap

4. Imagine you are building a block tower. If you allow a friend to help, you have more hands but you have to share the design. What are you trading?

- A. Your lunch
- B. Your shoes
- C. Total control for extra help
- D. The color blue

5. If a rule makes one person happy but hurts ten people, it is a 'good' rule for the community.

- A. True
- B. False

6. You find a shiny rock on the playground. Who should decide what happens to the rock to be most fair?

- A. The strongest person
- B. The student who found it and the teacher together
- C. Nobody
- D. The person with the loudest voice

7. In our classroom, 'Liberty' means I am free to play, as long as I don't ____.

Name: _____ Date: _____

- A. Blink
- B. Smile
- C. Hurt my friends
- D. Wear socks

8. Being a 'citizen' of our classroom means we have both fun things we get to do and jobs we must do.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If we need to pick a new game to play and we want everyone to feel 'represented,' what should we do?

- A. Let everyone vote by raising their hand
- B. Let the teacher pick alone
- C. Don't play any games
- D. Only let the boys choose

10. If a friend is sad because they have no toys, sharing our toys is a way to show ____.

- A. We are fast
- B. We are sleepy
- C. Justice and kindness
- D. We are loud