

Name: _____ Date: _____

Nailing the Fair Play Rules: Pre-K Civil Rights Heroes Quiz

Little ones build a foundation for justice by designing solutions for sharing and recognizing how brave friends made the world kinder for everyone.

1. If you saw a 'Whites Only' sign at a water fountain today, how would you change it to make it fair for all children?

- A. Paint a sign that says 'Everyone is Welcome'
- B. Take the water fountain away so no one can drink
- C. Make a sign that says 'Only Adults Allowed'
- D. Leave it alone because signs are always right

2. Ruby Bridges was a very brave girl who showed us that even children can help change unfair rules.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When people march together holding signs and singing songs to change a rule that isn't nice, it is called a ____.

- A. Protest
- B. Birthday Party
- C. Hide and Seek
- D. Nap Time

4. Imagine you are making a 'Friendship Rule Book' for your school. Which rule would help stop 'Segregation' (keeping people apart)?

- A. We only play with people who look like us
- B. We use our big voices to say 'You can't play'
- C. We invite everyone to the table, no matter what
- D. We sit in separate corners of the room

5. The ____ used their music and 'Freedom Songs' to help people feel brave when things were scary.

- A. Freedom Singers
- B. Quiet Librarians
- C. Sleeping Giants
- D. Angry Monsters

6. Bayard Rustin helped organize a huge walk to tell leaders to be fair, showing us that planning and teamwork are important.

- A. True
- B. False

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. If you wanted to follow the example of Diane Nash and her friends who sat at lunch counters peacefully, what would you do if someone was mean to you?

- A. Push them back as hard as you can
- B. Stay calm and keep showing them kindness
- C. Run away and hide under a blanket
- D. Yell as loud as a dinosaur

8. Fannie Lou Hamer wanted everyone to have a ___ so they could help choose the leaders of our country.

- A. Vote
- B. Cookie
- C. Toy Car
- D. New Hat

9. Septima Clark was a teacher who helped adults learn to read so they could stand up for themselves. Why is learning important for unfair rules?

- A. It helps us know our rights and use our voices
- B. It helps us draw better pictures of flowers
- C. It means we can get more snacks
- D. It helps us sleep better at night

10. To start a movement for fairness, you first have to notice when something is not right and then talk to your friends about how to fix it.

- A. True
- B. False