1. If a toy reviewer like 'Blippi' or 'Ryan' wants to show us a new car, where do we usually watch them?

Answer: C) On a tablet or TV screen

Digital creators use screens (like tablets, phones, or TVs) to share their videos with viewers.

2. True or False: If we see a person wearing a 'Space Suit' in an online video, they might be trying to teach us about stars.

Answer: A) True

Influencers use costumes and props to show us what their video theme is about, like space or science.

3. When a creator asks you to click the 'Thumbs Up' button, they want to know if you ___ their video.

Answer: B) Liked

A thumbs up is a universal symbol on social media for 'liking' or enjoying a piece of content.

4. An influencer who cooks yummy snacks for kids is most likely to show us which of these things?

Answer: B) A colorful bowl of fruit

Food influencers use bright, appealing foods to catch the audience's attention and show what they are making.

5. True or False: Everything we see a person do in a video is exactly how they act every single second of the day.

Answer: B) False

Videos are often edited or planned; people online only show us small parts of their day, not everything.

6. If you are watching a video about drawing, and the person says 'Follow me for more!', what are they asking you to do?

Answer: C) Wait to see their next video

'Following' someone online means you want to see the future pictures or videos they share.

7. If an influencer is holding a box and says 'Look what I got!', they are doing an ___ video.

Answer: A) Unboxing

'Unboxing' is a popular type of video where creators open new packages to show what is inside.

8. True or False: It is important to ask a grown-up before we click buttons on a social media video.

Answer: A) True

Practicing digital safety by asking a trusted adult is a key skill for young learners using technology.

9. Why would an influencer wear a very silly hat while they talk to the camera?

Answer: B) To make the video fun to look at Influencers use 'visual hooks' like silly hats to make their videos more engaging and memorable for kids.

10. A video that many people see and talk about very quickly is called a ___ video.

Answer: C) Viral

'Viral' is the term used when digital content spreads rapidly across the internet.
