

Name: _____ Date: _____

Calling the Plays: A Pro-Teammate Challenge for Grade 1

First graders move beyond basic play to solve tricky sideline scenarios and evaluate the best moves for winning with kindness and skill.

---

1. Your teammate is trying to pass the ball but they are surrounded by the other team. What is the most helpful thing for you to do?

- A. Run away and wait for the game to end.
- B. Stay behind the other team so they can't see you.
- C. Run to an open space and call 'I'm open!' to help.
- D. Sit down on the grass and watch your teammate.

2. In a team sport, it is faster to move the ball to the goal by passing it to different teammates than by one person running alone.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When a teammate makes a mistake, a great leader will _____ to make the team stronger.

- A. yell at them to do better
- B. say 'It's okay, keep trying!'
- C. tell the coach to kick them off
- D. ignore them for the rest of the game

4. Imagine you are playing 'Capture the Flag'. Why is it better to have some people stay back to guard while others run forward?

- A. Because the guards are too tired to run.
- B. Having different jobs (roles) covers the whole field.
- C. Only the fastest people are allowed to play.
- D. The rules say everyone must stand still.

5. If the referee makes a call you don't like, the best strategy for your team is to stop playing and argue.

- A. True
- B. False

6. In a game like Floor Hockey, looking at your teammates before you hit the puck is called _____.

- A. hiding
- B. scoring
- C. looking for a target
- D. sleeping

7. If your team is losing by a lot of points, what should you do to show good sportsmanship?

Name: _____

Date: _____

- A. Keep playing your hardest until the whistle blows.
- B. Leave the field and go home early.
- C. Blame the goalie for the score.
- D. Ask the other team to stop scoring.

8. Before a game starts, a team meets in a tight circle to talk; this is called a _____.

- A. nap time
- B. huddle
- C. party
- D. race

9. A team with players who talk to each other usually plays better than a team that stays quiet.

- A. True
- B. False

10. When the game is over, why do teams line up to shake hands or say 'Good Game'?

- A. Because they are forced to do it.
- B. To see who has the cleanest hands.
- C. To show respect for the effort everyone put in.
- D. To try and start the game over.