

Name: _____ Date: _____

Scribble with Purpose: Tiny Trailblazers' First Functional Writing Quiz for Pre-K

Challenge your scouts to decode everyday symbols and select the right tool for a specific job, from mailing letters to guiding classmates with signs.

1. If you want to tell someone to 'Stop' using a sign, which shape and color should you use?

- A. A green circle
- B. A red octagon
- C. A blue square
- D. A yellow star

2. True or False: We draw a picture of a toilet on a sign to show people where the bathroom is.

- A. True
- B. False

3. To write a grocery list so you don't forget milk, you should use a ____.

- A. Pencil and paper
- B. Paintbrush and water
- C. Hammer and nail
- D. Spoon and bowl

4. You made a beautiful drawing for your Grandma. Where should you write her name so the mail carrier knows where to take it?

- A. On the back of your hand
- B. On the front of the envelope
- C. Hidden under a rug
- D. Inside a closed book

5. True or False: A recipe is a type of writing that tells us how to build a toy car.

- A. True
- B. False