

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: Paw Patrol: Mayor Humdinger's Secret Border Bridge for Kinders

Young leaders will decide where to put playgrounds and share toys across town borders to keep Adventure Bay and Foggy Bottom friends.

1. Imagine Adventure Bay only has apples and Foggy Bottom only has grapes. If the mayors want to share, what should they build between the towns?

Answer: B) A big, wide bridge

Bridges connect places and help neighbors share things they have with each other.

2. True or False: If two countries share a river for water, they have to work together like teammates to keep the water clean.

Answer: A) True

When people share a natural resource like water, they must cooperate to make sure there is enough for everyone.

3. If a country is in the middle of a big, dry desert, they might trade their sand to get more ___ to drink.

Answer: C) Water

Places trade what they have extra of to get things they really need to survive, like water.

4. The Queen of Ice Land and the King of Sun Land want to be friends. What is the best way for them to show they are a 'team'?

Answer: C) Sign a peace paper

Signing a peace paper, or a treaty, is how countries officially agree to be friends and allies.

5. A small island in the ocean is hard for other people to visit because it is surrounded by ___.

Answer: A) Deep water

Geography, like being surrounded by water, changes how easy it is for a country to talk to others.

Name: _____ Date: _____

6. True or False: A country with very tall mountains on its border is like a house with a very strong, natural fence.

Answer: A) True

Mountains act as natural borders that make it harder for people to cross into a country without permission.

7. If two neighbors both want to play on the same patch of grass between their houses, what is the 'advanced' way to solve the problem?

Answer: B) Draw a line and share

Creating a border and making rules for sharing is how countries solve territorial disputes.

8. A 'Chokepoint' is like a very ___ hallway where everyone has to slow down to pass through.

Answer: C) Narrow

In geopolitics, a narrow path like a small canal is very important because everyone must use it to move goods.

9. Why would a country want to own a piece of land that has a lot of gold inside the dirt?

Answer: B) To be wealthy and powerful

Natural resources, like gold or oil, give a country more power in the world.

10. True or False: If a country is very, very big, it is always easier to keep every single person safe and happy.

Answer: B) False

Being very large can be hard because there is so much land to look after and so many different people to help.
