

Name: _____ Date: _____

Build a Brilliant Big-Screen Browser: Kindergarten Web Quiz

Imagine you are building a digital playhouse using these 10 questions about computer code, colors, and the buttons that make things move.

1. Which of these is like the 'bones' or the 'walls' of a house that hold everything together in a website?

- A. HTML
- B. Painting
- C. A Mouse
- D. Stickers

2. True or False: We use CSS to choose pretty colors like pink and blue for our website.

- A. True
- B. False

3. JavaScript is the part of the code that adds _____ to a website so things can move.

- A. Dust
- B. Sleep
- C. Action
- D. Quiet

4. If you want to put a big 'Hello' title on your page, which one would you use?

- A. A crayon
- B. HTML
- C. A vacuum
- D. A pillow

5. True or False: Computers need special code instructions to know where to put a picture.

- A. True
- B. False

6. When you click a button and a robot dances on the screen, that is _____ working.

- A. Milk
- B. JavaScript
- C. Paper
- D. Gravity

7. Which one of these makes the buttons on a website look round or square?

- A. A hammer
- B. A song
- C. CSS

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. A snack

8. True or False: HTML, CSS, and JavaScript all work together as a team.

- A. True
- B. False

9. What is a 'web developer'?

- A. Someone who builds websites
- B. A spider
- C. A type of car
- D. A fruit

10. If you want a website to have a yellow background, you would use ____.

- A. A banana
- B. CSS
- C. Shoes
- D. A cat