

Name: _____ Date: _____

Assert Your Authority: Senior Irregular Verb Mastery

Students synthesize complex narrative tones and perfective aspects by correcting subtle morphological shifts in advanced literary contexts.

1. In the context of a formal academic critique, which sentence correctly utilizes the past participle of 'strive' to denote a completed historical effort?

- A. The activists had strived for years before the legislation passed.
- B. The activists had striven for years before the legislation passed.
- C. The activists had strove for years before the legislation passed.
- D. The activists had strive for years before the legislation passed.

2. Complete the existentialist reflection: 'The philosopher realized he had _____ the seeds of his own internal conflict long ago.'

- A. sowed
- B. sewn
- C. sown
- D. sowed

3. True or False: In legal or archaic contexts, the verb 'plead' often uses 'pled' as the past tense form, though 'pleaded' is also accepted in standard English.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Which of the following sentences exhibits a correct use of an irregular verb to describe a sudden, forceful action?

- A. The prisoner slinked away before the guards noticed.
- B. The cat had slinked through the tall grass.
- C. The shadows slunk across the courtyard as the sun set.
- D. He slink across the stage during the final act.

5. Identify the correct form to complete this sentence describing a chemical reaction: 'The liquid was _____ from the flask before it could evaporate.'

- A. drew
- B. drawn
- C. drew
- D. drowned

6. In a narrative describing a character who has outgrown their surroundings, which verb form is correct?

- A. He had outgrown the small-town mentality of his youth.

Name: _____ Date: _____

- B. He had outgrew the small-town mentality of his youth.
- C. He had outgrown the small-town mentality of his youth.
- D. He outgrown the small-town mentality of his youth.

7. True or False: The verb 'forecast' remains 'forecast' in the past tense when referring to weather or economic predictions, though 'forecasted' is becoming increasingly common.

- A. True
- B. False

8. Select the correct literary past tense: 'The heavy bell _____, echoing through the valley and signaling the end of the truce.'

- A. ringed
- B. rung
- C. rang
- D. ronged

9. Identify the sentence that correctly uses the past participle of 'tread' in a metaphorical sense.

- A. The diplomat has treaded lightly during the negotiations.
- B. The diplomat has trod lightly during the negotiations.
- C. The diplomat has trodden lightly during the negotiations.
- D. Both B and C are grammatically acceptable.

10. True or False: The past tense of the verb 'weave' is always 'weaved,' regardless of whether you are talking about making cloth or moving through traffic.

- A. True
- B. False