

Name: _____ Date: _____

Ethical Crossroads 4th Grade Mission

Would you keep a secret to help a friend or tell the truth to stay fair? Apply three big moral ideas to tricky real-life choices.

---

1. Imagine your class has $50. Maya wants to buy one expensive game for herself, but Leo suggests buying jump ropes for everyone to use at recess. Choosing the jump ropes to make the most people happy is an example of which idea?

- A. The Rule-Following Method
- B. The Happiness-Result Theory
- C. The Secret Keeper Strategy
- D. The Solo Winner Plan

2. A person who follows 'Duty Ethics' believes that some actions, like lying, are always wrong even if they have a good result.

- A. True
- B. False

3. Instead of just following rules, _____ Ethics focuses on building good character traits like courage, kindness, and honesty.

- A. Outcome
- B. Virtue
- C. Speed
- D. Popularity

4. Sam finds a library book that his friend accidentally dropped in the mud. He knows the rule is 'always tell the truth,' but he also wants to protect his friend from getting in trouble. This difficult choice is called an ethical:

- A. Solution
- B. Dilemma
- C. Direction
- D. Discovery

5. If a leader uses the Happiness-Result theory, they would always choose the option that helps the fewest people.

- A. True
- B. False

6. Sarah sees a classmate bullying someone. She feels that being a 'brave person' is part of who she is, so she steps in to help. Which framework is Sarah using?

- A. Result-based thinking

Name: _____ Date: _____

- B. Virtue ethics
- C. Rule-following only
- D. Profit-seeking

7. When you follow a rule simply because it is your _____ to do so, you are practicing deontology.

- A. Idea
- B. Duty
- C. Guess
- D. Wish

8. A scientist has enough medicine for only ten people, but twenty people are sick. If the scientist chooses the ten people who can help cure others later, which theory are they following?

- A. Utilitarianism (Results-based)
- B. Virtue Ethics (Character-based)
- C. Anarchy (No-rule based)
- D. Egoism (Self-based)

9. In Virtue Ethics, a person asks the question: 'What would a kind and honest person do in this situation?'

- A. True
- B. False

10. A shopper finds a $20 bill on the floor. If they believe in 'Duty' and a rule against stealing, they will _____ the money to the store manager.

- A. Hide
- B. Spend
- C. Return
- D. Ignore