

Name: _____ Date: _____

Nail Kindergarten Fair Play Political Philosophy Quiz

Can five-year-olds design a perfect playground? Analyze fairness and leadership roles through tricky sharing dilemmas perfect for morning meetings.

---

1. If there is only one swing and four friends want it, which choice shows 'Fairness' to everyone?

- A. The tallest person gets the swing all day
- B. Set a timer so everyone gets a turn
- C. The fastest runner gets the swing first
- D. Hide the swing so no one can use it

2. True or False: A good leader should only listen to their best friends.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we all agree on a 'Rule of the Room' to keep us safe, we are making a ____.

- A. Promise
- B. Secret
- C. Mistake
- D. Battle

4. Imagine a new student joins the class. Why should they follow the classroom rules?

- A. Because they are the smallest
- B. Only if they like the rules
- C. To help the community work together
- D. Because they have the best shoes

5. True or False: If a rule makes things hard for one person but helps everyone else stay safe, it can still be a good rule.

- A. True
- B. False

6. If your friend has no crackers and you have ten, sharing is an act of ____.

- A. Justice
- B. Winning
- C. Quietness
- D. Stopping

7. If the class votes on a snack, and most kids pick apples, but you want pears, what happens?

- A. You get to take everyone's apples
- B. The class has apples because of the vote

Name: _____ Date: _____

- C. The teacher cancels snack time
- D. You make your own rules now

8. True or False: Justice means everyone gets exactly the same thing, even if one person is hungrier than the others.

- A. True
- B. False

9. The person who helps us follow rules and makes sure everyone is safe is a ____.

- A. Runner
- B. Giant
- C. Leader
- D. Player

10. Why do we have a rule not to hit others in the classroom?

- A. Because hitting is boring
- B. To protect everyone's right to be safe
- C. Because the floor is cold
- D. Only because the teacher said so