

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: Science Safari Treasure Hunt for Savvy K-Kids

Spot the difference between stars, bugs, and big machines to earn your Junior Scientist badge in this multi-format challenge.

---

1. Which scientist would study a bright green frog in a pond?

Answer: A) A Life Scientist

Life scientists study living things, like animals and plants.

2. An astronomer is a scientist who looks at the stars and the moon.

Answer: A) True

True! Astronomy is the study of everything in outer space.

3. If you study volcanoes and hard mountains, you are an ___ Scientist.

Answer: B) Earth

Earth science is all about the ground we walk on and our planet.

4. What do we use to see tiny things that are too small for our eyes?

Answer: C) A microscope

Microscopes help scientists see tiny living hidden worlds.

5. A scientist who studies how toys move and roll is studying Physics.

Answer: A) True

Physics helps us understand movement, pushes, and pulls.

6. A ___ Scientist helps take care of the trees, air, and clean water.

Answer: D) Environmental

Environmental science is about protecting our nature and the world around us.

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Which of these is a job for a Chemist?

Answer: B) Mixing liquids to see them change

Chemistry is about what things are made of and how they change together.

8. Only grownups can use their five senses to be scientists.

Answer: B) False

False! Anyone who uses their eyes and ears to learn about the world is being a scientist.

9. When a scientist looks at the rain and the wind, they study the ____.

Answer: A) Weather

Meteorology is a branch of Earth science that looks at the weather.

10. What is the study of plants called?

Answer: B) Botany

Botany is a special part of life science just for sunflowers, trees, and grass.