

Name: _____ Date: _____

Preschool Storytime Stars Acting Quiz

Foundational skills for identifying characters and feelings to help young learners start their journey into theater and storytelling.

1. In a play, who are the people or animals that tell the story?

- A. The Chairs
- B. The Characters
- C. The Wall
- D. The Shoes

2. True or False: Characters can feel happy or sad in a story.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When an actor wears a special outfit to look like a king or a bear, it is called a ____.

- A. Blanket
- B. Pillow
- C. Costume
- D. Backpack

4. If a character is smiling and dancing, how are they feeling?

- A. Angry
- B. Sleepy
- C. Happy
- D. Scared

5. True or False: Only humans can be characters in a play.

- A. True
- B. False

6. The place where the story happens, like a forest or a castle, is the ____.

- A. Setting
- B. Lunchroom
- C. Bed
- D. Car

7. What do we call the big raised floor where actors perform?

- A. A Slide
- B. A Stage
- C. A Sandbox

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. A Swing

8. True or False: Actors use their voices to talk for their characters.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If the three little pigs are running from a wolf, the story has a ____.

- A. Nap
- B. Snack
- C. Problem
- D. Sock

10. At the very end of a play, what do the actors usually do?

- A. Take a Bow
- B. Go to Sleep
- C. Eat Cereal
- D. Clean the Windows