

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pizza Party Politics: Can You Rule This 5th Grade Logic Challenge?

Imagine your classroom is a new island nation; use these advanced scenarios to determine how to distribute resources and balance power fairly.

1. If your classroom decides to use a 'Consensus' model to pick a movie, but one person disagrees, what happens to the decision?

- A. The majority wins and the movie is played anyway.
- B. The group must keep talking until everyone reaches an agreement.
- C. The teacher makes the final decision instead.
- D. The person who disagreed is ignored.

2. In a 'Direct Democracy' at recess, every single student gets to vote on which game to play rather than picking leaders to choose for them.

- A. True
- B. False

3. If a group of friends agrees to follow 'The Golden Rule' as their law, they are basing their society on _____.

- A. Reciprocity
- B. Competition
- C. Monarchy
- D. Isolation

4. In the 'Lifeboat Scenario,' a group must choose who stays on a boat to save the most lives. This philosophy of choosing the 'greatest good for the most people' is called:

- A. Individualism
- B. Utilitarianism
- C. Anarchy
- D. Totalitarianism

5. A student who believes in 'Natural Rights' would argue that you are born with the right to think for yourself, and no school rule can ever take that away.

- A. True
- B. False

6. When a student council creates a 'Bill of Duties' (things students MUST do) alongside a 'Bill of Rights,' they are emphasizing _____.

- A. Civic Responsibility
- B. Absolute Power
- C. Individual Greed

Name: _____

Date: _____

D. Randomness

7. Imagine a town where the person who can play the flute the best is given the finest flute. This idea that tools should be given to those who can use them best for the community is known as:

- A. The Lottery System
- B. Distributive Justice based on merit
- C. First-come, first-served
- D. The Aristocracy of Wealth

8. A 'Telemocracy' is a group where only the people with the fastest internet or best technology are allowed to make the rules for everyone else.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If your class forms a 'Mini-Society' and everyone agrees to give up their right to yell in the library so that everyone can study in peace, what have you just created?

- A. A Social Contract
- B. A Dictatorship
- C. A State of Nature
- D. A Rebellion

10. In a society that values 'Pluralism,' the government makes sure that _____ are protected and heard.

- A. Only the loudest voices
- B. Many different groups and beliefs
- C. Only the richest people
- D. Only the leader's family