

Name: _____ Date: _____

Think Like a Leader: The Fair Play Challenge for Kindergarteners

Students analyze tricky schoolyard scenarios to evaluate fairness and practice the peaceful problem-solving skills used by brave history makers.

1. If a new rule said only children with blue shirts could use the swings, would that be fair or unfair?

- A. Fair, because blue is a pretty color.
- B. Unfair, because all children should be allowed to play.
- C. Fair, because the teacher said so.
- D. Unfair, because the swings are broken.

2. True or False: Using your words and sitting together peacefully is a strong way to change a bad rule.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When a group of people walk together with signs to show they want things to change, it is called a ____.

- A. Race
- B. Nap
- C. March
- D. Party

4. Imagine your friend is not allowed to join a game because of the color of their skin. What is the best way to be a leader?

- A. Walk away and play by yourself.
- B. Tell the group that everyone should be included.
- C. Yell at the other kids.
- D. Change your own skin color.

5. True or False: Before the laws changed, some children had to go to different schools just because of how they looked.

- A. True
- B. False

6. Which word describes treating everyone the same way, even if they are different from us?

- A. Fast
- B. Equality
- C. Quiet
- D. Angry

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Ruby Bridges was a very brave girl who went to a new school all by herself to show that ___ belongs to everyone.

- A. Candy
- B. Money
- C. Learning
- D. Sleeping

8. True or False: You have to be an adult to help make the world a fairer place.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If you see a sign that says 'No Left-Handed People Allowed,' what should you do to help?

- A. Start using your right hand.
- B. Tell a teacher that the sign is not fair to everyone.
- C. Ignore the sign and keep walking.
- D. Close your eyes.

10. When people choose to be kind and not fight, even when they are sad or move to change things, they are being ___.

- A. Noisy
- B. Nonviolent
- C. Scary
- D. Funny