

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: Stirring the Liberty Pot: A Pre-K American Revolution Quiz

Can a small cup of tea start a big change? Little learners identify colonial symbols and practice early analysis of community fairness.

1. The colonists were unhappy because things didn't feel fair. If you have to share your toys but nobody shares with you, is that fair?

Answer: B) No, it is not fair

The Revolution started because the colonists felt the King was being unfair by making rules without asking them.

2. The brave people who wanted to start a new country were called ____.

Answer: B) Patriots

Patriots was the name for the people who loved their new home and wanted it to be free.

3. True or False: The colonists wore bright neon sneakers during the war.

Answer: B) False

Long ago, people wore leather shoes or boots, not modern sneakers!

4. A famous lady named Betsy Ross used a needle and thread to make a ____.

Answer: C) First American flag

Betsy Ross is remembered for sewing the very first flag to represent the new United States.

5. To send a secret message, Paul Revere used two ____ in a church tower.

Answer: B) Lanterns

Before phones, people used lanterns (lights) to send messages across distances at night.

6. True or False: The Liberty Bell has a big crack in it.

Answer: A) True

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Liberty Bell is a famous symbol of freedom that is known for its large crack.

7. The 'Green Mountain Boys' were a group of helpers from Vermont. What color do you think they liked to wear?

Answer: C) Green

They used 'Green' in their name because they lived near the green mountains.

8. Instead of a king, the new country wanted to pick a ___ to help lead.

Answer: B) President

America decided to have a President who is chosen by the people.

9. True or False: During the Revolution, people used computers to write letters.

Answer: B) False

Computers weren't invented yet! They used feathers dipped in ink to write.

10. If you wanted to be 'independent' like the colonies, it means you want to:

Answer: A) Do things yourself

Independence means being brave enough to stand on your own and make your own choices.