

Name: _____ Date: _____

Stirring the Liberty Pot: A Pre-K American Revolution Quiz

Can a small cup of tea start a big change? Little learners identify colonial symbols and practice early analysis of community fairness.

1. The colonists were unhappy because things didn't feel fair. If you have to share your toys but nobody shares with you, is that fair?

- A. Yes, it is fair
- B. No, it is not fair
- C. Maybe tomorrow
- D. Only on birthdays

2. The brave people who wanted to start a new country were called ____.

- A. Pirates
- B. Patriots
- C. Cowboys
- D. Knights

3. True or False: The colonists wore bright neon sneakers during the war.

- A. True
- B. False

4. A famous lady named Betsy Ross used a needle and thread to make a ____.

- A. Big birthday cake
- B. New pair of jeans
- C. First American flag
- D. Winter coat for a dog

5. To send a secret message, Paul Revere used two ____ in a church tower.

- A. Flashlights
- B. Lanterns
- C. Balloons
- D. Teddy bears

6. True or False: The Liberty Bell has a big crack in it.

- A. True
- B. False

7. The 'Green Mountain Boys' were a group of helpers from Vermont. What color do you think they liked to wear?

- A. Purple

Name: _____ Date: _____

- B. Pink
- C. Green
- D. Orange

8. Instead of a king, the new country wanted to pick a ___ to help lead.

- A. Dragon
- B. President
- C. Magician
- D. Giant

9. True or False: During the Revolution, people used computers to write letters.

- A. True
- B. False

10. If you wanted to be 'independent' like the colonies, it means you want to:

- A. Do things yourself
- B. Take a long nap
- C. Eat only broccoli
- D. Buy a new toy