

Name: _____ Date: _____

Super Mario Writing Stars: First Grade Process Quiz

Moving beyond simple sentences, learners identify the core steps to build a great story from a tiny spark to a finished project.

1. Imagine you want to write a story about a space cat. What is the very first thing you should do?

- A. Turn the story in to your teacher
- B. Think of ideas and draw a picture of the cat
- C. Check all your spelling
- D. Read the story to the whole class

2. A 'rough draft' is the final, perfect version of your writing.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When you add more 'juicy' details or exciting words to your story to make it better, you are ____.

- A. Revising
- B. Sleeping
- C. Ending
- D. Copying

4. You finished your story about a dragon. Now you are looking for missing periods and capital letters. What are you doing?

- A. Starting over
- B. Planning
- C. Editing
- D. Singing

5. Publishing means you are finally ready to share your work with others.

- A. True
- B. False

6. Before you write, you might use a graphic organizer or a ____ to organize your thoughts.

- A. Sandwich
- B. Web
- C. Pillow
- D. Shoe

7. Which of these is NOT part of the writing process?

- A. Drafting
- B. Editing

Name: _____ Date: _____

- C. Lunchtime
- D. Planning

8. When you draft, you should stop to fix every single tiny mistake as you go.

- A. True
- B. False

9. If you decide to change the ending of your story to make it sillier, you are ____ your work.

- A. Coloring
- B. Ignoring
- C. Planning
- D. Revising

10. Which item helps you most during the Editing stage?

- A. A checklist for capitals and periods
- B. A box of crayons
- C. A ball to play with
- D. A picture of a dog