

Name: _____ Date: _____

Dissect the Draft: A 9th Grade Writing Process Quiz

Analyze structural transitions, evaluate rhetoric, and refine global coherence as you move from messy concepts to a polished academic argument.

1. Which strategy involves a 'global' revision of a manuscript rather than a 'local' one?

- A. Correcting a recurring comma splice in the third paragraph.
- B. Replacing 'very sad' with 'despondent' to improve tone.
- C. Reordering the body paragraphs to better support the logical progression of the thesis.
- D. Applying MLA citations to all quoted material.

2. During the planning phase, a writer uses a _____ to visually map out complex relationships between different themes or historical figures before writing.

- A. Graphic organizer
- B. Lexicon
- C. Style guide
- D. Rubric

3. True or False: The writing process is inherently recursive, meaning a writer can return to the planning stage even after a full draft has been written.

- A. True
- B. False

4. If a 9th-grade student is focusing on 'sentence fluency' and 'transition signals,' which stage of the process are they most likely performing?

- A. Brainstorming
- B. Drafting
- C. Revising
- D. Publishing

5. The primary goal of the _____ stage is 'generative,' meaning the writer focuses on output and flow rather than perfection or grammatical accuracy.

- A. Editing
- B. Drafting
- C. Formatting
- D. Peer Review

6. True or False: 'Editing' and 'Revising' are synonymous terms that describe the act of fixing spelling and punctuation errors.

- A. True
- B. False

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. Which of the following is considered a 'formative assessment' activity within the peer review phase of the writing process?

- A. Receiving a final letter grade on a rubric from the instructor.
- B. Submitting a digital portfolio for a state exam.
- C. Participating in a writer's workshop to receive feedback on a working draft.
- D. Standardized testing of grammar and vocabulary skills.

8. When a writer checks their work to ensure it follows the technical requirements of the _____, such as APA or MLA, they are in the final stages of the process.

- A. Thesis statement
- B. Drafting phase
- C. Style guide
- D. Rhetorical triangle

9. During the planning stage, which technique is most effective for a writer struggling with 'writer's block'?

- A. Freewriting for ten minutes without lifting the pen.
- B. Reading the dictionary for new vocabulary.
- C. Formatting the works cited page.
- D. Checking the word count of a blank page.

10. True or False: The 'Publishing' stage always requires a print-based medium, such as a physical book or a printed newspaper.

- A. True
- B. False