

Name: _____ Date: _____

Which Pronoun Best Resolves This Ambiguity? 7th Grade Advanced Quiz

Synthesize complex sentence structures by resolving vague antecedents and ensuring case agreement in academic and technical contexts.

---

1. In the sentence, 'The conductor told the cellist that their instrument required tuning,' why is the pronoun 'their' considered problematic in a formal academic context?

- A. It is a plural pronoun being used to refer to a single subject
- B. It creates a vague antecedent because it could refer to either the conductor or the cellist
- C. It is a reflexive pronoun used incorrectly as a possessive
- D. The sentence requires an intensive pronoun for emphasis instead

2. The debate team argued that the trophy was _____ after the tie-breaking round concluded.

- A. there's
- B. theirs'
- C. theirs
- D. themselves

3. True or False: In the sentence 'Whatever happens is fine with me,' the word 'Whatever' functions as a relative pronoun introducing a noun clause.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Which sentence correctly utilizes the subjective case of a pronoun within a compound structure?

- A. The principal asked my classmate and I to lead the assembly.
- B. Between you and I, the hypothesis seems unsubstantiated.
- C. The most decorated athletes in the district are her and him.
- D. She and the architect reviewed the blueprints for the new library.

5. To _____ should the diplomat address the formal invitation for the summit?

- A. who
- B. whoever
- C. whom
- D. whose

6. Identify the function of the italicized word: 'The scientist **herself** conducted the final trial to ensure accuracy.'

- A. Reflexive pronoun acting as a direct object
- B. Intensive pronoun used for emphasis
- C. Demonstrative pronoun pointing to a specific person
- D. Indefinite pronoun referring to an unspecified person

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. True or False: In the phrase 'Each of the modern composers wrote their own score,' the use of 'their' is technically incorrect in traditional prescriptive grammar.

- A. True
- B. False

8. Choose the sentence that demonstrates perfect pronoun-antecedent agreement with a collective noun.

- A. The jury took their seats in the courtroom.
- B. The committee presented its findings to the board.
- C. The flock of birds changed their direction mid-flight.
- D. The orchestra tuned their instruments simultaneously.

9. The curator noticed that _____ of the artifacts were damaged during the cross-country transport.

- A. much
- B. several
- C. anybody
- D. each one

10. Which sentence contains a vague pronoun reference that needs revision?

- A. The mountain climbers reached the summit before sunset.
- B. After the storm hit the coast, it was a total disaster.
- C. She lent him a book because she knew he enjoyed history.
- D. Neither of the candidates finished his or her speech on time.