Answer Key: Stomping Through the Sizzling Sportsmanship Safari for Pre-K

Little learners identify caring choices and analyze tricky playground dilemmas to build foundational emotional intelligence during active play.

1. Imagine your friend is the 'Tag' monster and they fall down while chasing you. What is the most helpful thing to do?

Answer: B) Stop and ask if they are okay.

A great sport cares more about their friend's safety than winning the game.

2. If the teacher says you are 'out' in a game of Duck, Duck, Goose, you should stomp your feet and say 'No!'

Answer: B) False

Listening to the teacher or the leader and following the rules keeps the game fun for everyone.

3. When we finish a big race, we should look at our friends and say: 'Good ____!'

Answer: A) Job

Saying 'Good Job' or 'Great Game' shows respect for the hard work your friends did.

4. You are playing with a sparkly ball and another friend wants a turn. What is the best way to share?

Answer: C) Invite them to play 'catch' together.

Sharing and playing together is a key part of being a team player.

5. It is okay to be sad if you lose a game, but we must still be kind to the winners.

Answer: A) True

Feeling disappointed is normal, but sportsmanship means we stay kind even when we are sad.

6. A person who follows the rules even when the teacher isn't looking is being ____.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: B) Honest

Honesty means telling the truth about the rules, which makes the game fair for everyone.

7. During a relay race, your teammate is running very slowly. What should you do?

Answer: C) Cheer for them and clap your hands.

Encouraging your teammates helps them feel brave and keep trying their best.

8. Winner means you are the best person in the whole room and losers are not good at anything.

Answer: B) False

Winning a game just means you scored more points today; everyone is still special and talented.

9. Before a game starts, we can wave to our friends on the other team to show ____.

Answer: C) Respect

Respect is showing others that you value them as friends before the competition begins.

10. If you see a new student standing alone during PE time, what is the 'Super Sport' thing to do?

Answer: A) Ask them to join your team.

Inclusion is a part of sportsmanship; inviting others ensures everyone gets to have fun.
