

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: Who Gets the Big Red Chair? A Pre-K Party Politics Quiz

Little learners develop a foundational sense of fairness and leadership by identifying how friends share toys and make group choices together.

---

1. If three friends want to play with one sparkly ball, what is the fair way to share?

Answer: A) Take turns using a timer

Taking turns is a basic form of distributive justice, ensuring everyone gets an equal opportunity to enjoy a resource.

2. In a classroom, a leader is someone who helps others follow the rules.

Answer: A) True

Authority in a Pre-K setting is often introduced as a helping role that maintains order and safety for the whole group.

3. When we all ____ on which book to read, we are making a group choice.

Answer: C) vote

Voting introduces the concept of democracy and the 'general will' at a level children can understand through simple preferences.

4. Who is the person in our school who helps keep everyone safe and makes big decisions?

Answer: B) The Principal

Identifying the Principal helps children recognize legitimate authority figures and the structure of their immediate political community.

5. Only the biggest kids are allowed to have feelings and ideas.

Answer: B) False

Equality means that every person's voice and rights are important, regardless of their size or age.

6. What should we do if a new friend joins our circle time?

Answer: A) Make room for them to sit

Name: _____ Date: _____

Inclusion is a core value of a healthy political community, showing that everyone belongs.

7. We follow ____ so that everyone stays safe and happy in the classroom.

Answer: B) rules

Rules are the 'laws' of the classroom that protect the rights and safety of the students.

8. If you find a toy that belongs to someone else, you should give it back.

Answer: A) True

Respecting property rights is an early lesson in justice and the rights of others.

9. How do we decide which game to play if we can't agree?

Answer: B) Ask a teacher to help us decide

Seeking a mediator (the teacher) demonstrates how societies use neutral parties to resolve conflicts fairly.

10. Being a good ____ means being kind and helping your classmates.

Answer: D) citizen

Citizenship involves active participation and concern for the well-being of the whole group.