

Name: _____

Date: _____

Who Gets the Big Red Chair? A Pre-K Party Politics Quiz

Little learners develop a foundational sense of fairness and leadership by identifying how friends share toys and make group choices together.

---

1. If three friends want to play with one sparkly ball, what is the fair way to share?

- A. Take turns using a timer
- B. Hide the ball in a cubby
- C. Only the fastest runner keeps it
- D. Throw the ball over the fence

2. In a classroom, a leader is someone who helps others follow the rules.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we all ___ on which book to read, we are making a group choice.

- A. shout
- B. sleep
- C. vote
- D. hide

4. Who is the person in our school who helps keep everyone safe and makes big decisions?

- A. The stuffed bear
- B. The Principal
- C. A tiny kitten
- D. The sandbox

5. Only the biggest kids are allowed to have feelings and ideas.

- A. True
- B. False

6. What should we do if a new friend joins our circle time?

- A. Make room for them to sit
- B. Tell them to go away
- C. Close our eyes
- D. Run to the playground

7. We follow ___ so that everyone stays safe and happy in the classroom.

- A. birds
- B. rules
- C. clouds

Name: _____

Date: _____

D. shadows

8. If you find a toy that belongs to someone else, you should give it back.

- A. True
- B. False

9. How do we decide which game to play if we can't agree?

- A. Cry until we get our way
- B. Ask a teacher to help us decide
- C. Stop playing forever
- D. Throw blocks

10. Being a good ___ means being kind and helping your classmates.

- A. neighbor
- B. statue
- C. giant
- D. citizen