Answer Key: Strike a Pose: Trends That Changed the World for 4th Graders

Evidence-based reasoning, cultural analysis, and connection-making. Analyze how music, movies, and style trends reflect the values and history of our society.

1. In the 1920s, many women began wearing their hair in a short 'Bob' cut and wearing shorter dresses. What did this trend represent?

Answer: B) Newfound freedom and a break from old traditions

The 'Flapper' style of the 1920s symbolized women's changing roles in society and their desire for more independence and movement.

2. True or False: The use of bright neon colors in 1980s fashion was partly inspired by the rise of electronic music and video games.

Answer: A) True

The 1980s saw a boom in digital technology, which influenced the 'electric' and 'neon' aesthetic found in both music videos and clothing.

3. When a movie like 'Toy Story' became the first fully computer-animated film, it changed the ____ of the film industry.

Answer: B) Technology

Trends in film are often driven by technological advancements, such as moving from hand-drawn to computer-generated animation.

4. Why do many modern clothing brands now use recycled plastic bottles to make t-shirts?

Answer: C) To reflect a growing societal trend toward environmental protection

Fashion often reflects current social values; today, sustainability is a major trend because people care more about the planet.

5. The trend of 'Jazz' music in the 1930s was important because it brought musicians of different ____ together to perform.

Answer: B) Races

Name: _____ Date: _____

Jazz played a major role in social change by being one of the first popular art forms to integrate Black and White performers.

6. True or False: Trends in music never influence what people choose to wear.

Answer: B) False

Music and fashion are closely linked; fans often dress like their favorite musicians to show they belong to that 'scene'.

7. Which of these is an example of a 'global' trend in modern pop culture?

Answer: B) A song that becomes famous in many countries via the internet

Global trends are shared by people all over the world, often thanks to digital platforms and social media.

8. In the 1940s, during World War II, many women wore practical ____ to work in factories, which changed fashion forever.

Answer: D) Trousers

Historical events, like wars, often force changes in fashion. Women wearing trousers for work led to it becoming a popular daily trend later.

9. True or False: A 'trend' is something that stays exactly the same for hundreds of years.

Answer: B) False

Trends are characterized by change; they evolve as society and technology change over time.

10. How did the invention of the 'Portable Radio' change music trends in the 1960s?

Answer: B) It allowed teenagers to listen to music away from their parents

Technology like the portable radio allowed youth culture to grow independently, as kids could listen to 'their' music anywhere.
