

Name: _____ Date: _____

Planting Seeds of Fairness: Kindergartners' Choice Garden Quiz

Empathy-driven decision making and perspective-taking. Students analyze how sharing a favorite toy or waiting a turn impacts the feelings of friends and neighbors.

1. If you have two stickers and your friend has zero, what is the kindest thing to do?

- A. Hide them in your pocket
- B. Give one sticker to your friend
- C. Show them how much better your stickers are
- D. Stick both on your own shirt

2. If you accidentally break a friend's crayon, you should tell the truth even if you are scared.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we wait our turn for the slide, we are showing _____.

- A. Speed
- B. Anger
- C. Patience
- D. Hunger

4. A new student is sitting alone at lunch. What is the most 'virtuous' or good choice?

- A. Sit with your old friends only
- B. Ask them to come play with you
- C. Walk past them quickly
- D. Tell them they are sitting in the wrong spot

5. Doing what is best for the whole class is more important than doing only what I want.

- A. True
- B. False

6. Following the classroom rules even when the teacher isn't looking is called my _____.

- A. Bedtime
- B. Homework
- C. Duty
- D. Secret

7. If you see a toy on the floor that belongs to the school, what should you do?

- A. Leave it for someone else to trip on
- B. Keep it in your backpack
- C. Put it back in its proper bin

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. Throw it in the trash

8. It is okay to take a snack that isn't yours if you are very hungry.

- A. True
- B. False

9. When we think about how our actions make others feel, we are using _____.

- A. Magic
- B. Empathy
- C. Running
- D. Shouting

10. Two friends want to play different games. What is the fairest way to decide?

- A. Don't play with either person
- B. The person who screams loudest chooses
- C. Play one game first, then the other
- D. Flip a coin and the loser cries