

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Wagon Wheel Dilemma: A Pre-K Adventure in Western Choices

Preschoolers weigh the heavy choices of a long journey across 10 interactive questions exploring tools, teamwork, and the diverse paths across the plains.

1. If your heavy wagon is stuck in the deep mud on the way to a new home, which friend helps you the most?

- A. A tiny pet kitty
- B. A strong, pulling ox
- C. A singing bird
- D. A colorful butterfly

2. True or False: In the old West, families sometimes had to leave their favorite toys behind because their wagons were too full.

- A. True
- B. False

3. A family needs to cross a very wide river. To stay dry, they should turn their wagon into a ____.

- A. Airplane
- B. Bicycle
- C. Boat
- D. House

4. You meet a person who has lived on this land for a long time. What is the kindest way to learn about the best water holes?

- A. Hide behind a rock
- B. Trade a story or a gift
- C. Run away quickly
- D. Shout very loudly

5. True or False: The pioneers used a GPS on a phone to find their way to Oregon.

- A. True
- B. False

6. The sun is going down and it is getting cold on the prairie. What should your family build first to stay safe?

- A. A swimming pool
- B. A circle of wagons
- C. A tall skyscraper
- D. A toy store

Name: _____ Date: _____

7. If there are no trees to build a house, a smart family might build a house made out of ____.

- A. Ice cream
- B. Lego bricks
- C. Grass and dirt (Sod)
- D. Cotton candy

8. Which of these is a REAL job a child would have on a wagon train?

- A. Driving a car
- B. Picking up buffalo chips for fuel
- C. Watching television
- D. Ordering pizza

9. True or False: Every person who moved west found a big bag of gold right away.

- A. True
- B. False

10. To keep their food fresh without a fridge, settlers used lots of ____.

- A. Salt
- B. Glitter
- C. Bubbles
- D. Chocolate