

Name: _____ Date: _____

North and South: A First Grade Tale of Two Homes Quiz

Children develop a foundational understanding of how different families lived and worked during the 1860s through relatable comparisons of city and farm life.

1. During the war, friends in the North and South wore different colors so they knew who was on their team. What color did most Northern soldiers wear?

- A. Bright Yellow
- B. Dark Blue
- C. Grass Green
- D. Hot Pink

2. A very brave woman named _____ helped people travel to safety in the North using secret paths called the Underground Railroad.

- A. Harriet Tubman
- B. Betsy Ross
- C. Mother Goose
- D. Cinderella

3. The war lasted for a very long time, for about four years.

- A. True
- B. False

4. After the war was over, what did the North and South do?

- A. They stayed two different countries
- B. They moved to the moon
- C. They became one big country again
- D. They stopped talking forever

5. In the South, many people lived on very large farms called _____ where they grew cotton.

- A. Playgrounds
- B. Plantations
- C. Skyscrapers
- D. Supermarkets

6. Clara Barton was a famous teacher who taught soldiers how to paint pictures.

- A. True
- B. False

7. What did many children have to do while the grown-ups were away at war?

- A. Watch cartoons all day

Name: _____ Date: _____

- B. Go to the mall
- C. Help with big chores and farming
- D. Play video games

8. Robert E. Lee was the leader of the army for the South.

- A. True
- B. False

9. The _____ was a special piece of paper that said all people should be free.

- A. Shopping List
- B. Emancipation Proclamation
- C. Library Card
- D. Birthday Invitation

10. How did people send messages quickly during the Civil War?

- A. Using a Telegraph
- B. Sending an Email
- C. Making a Phone Call
- D. Using a Satellite