

Name: _____ Date: _____

Think You've Mastered the Irregular Verb? 7th Grade Grammar Challenge

Navigate complex sentence structures and historical contexts as you prove you can handle the most deceptive verb shifts in the English language.

1. Early explorers _____ across the Atlantic, documenting unknown currents and celestial patterns to improve navigation.

- A. swum
- B. swam
- C. swimmmed
- D. swimmied

2. The tension between the rival factions has _____ since the signing of the last peace treaty.

- A. arose
- B. arisen
- C. arised
- D. rose

3. In the sentence 'The architect built the skyscraper,' the verb 'built' is an irregular verb.

- A. True
- B. False

4. After the marathon, several runners _____ water to the finish line to help those struggling with dehydration.

- A. bringed
- B. brang
- C. brought
- D. broughten

5. Before the symphony ended, the lead cellist had _____ several complex solos that left the audience in awe.

- A. strived
- B. strove
- C. striven
- D. striving

6. The past tense of the verb 'burst' is 'bursted'.

- A. True
- B. False

7. Which of these sentences correctly uses the past participle of 'fly'?

Name: _____ Date: _____

- A. The pilot has flew this route many times before.
- B. The birds have flied south for the winter.
- C. The aircraft had flown over the mountain range at dawn.
- D. We have flyed in a helicopter only once.

8. The ancient scrolls were _____ in a hidden chamber for centuries until archaeologists uncovered them last spring.

- A. keeped
- B. kept
- C. kepten
- D. keep

9. Despite the storm's intensity, the oak tree _____ firm against the gale winds.

- A. stood
- B. standed
- C. stooden
- D. standing

10. In the sentence 'She has written her memoir,' the verb 'written' is the past participle of 'write'.

- A. True
- B. False