Answer Key: When the Puppets Come to Life! Dramatic Arts Quiz for Kindergarten

It's more than just sitting quietly—little learners identify performers and settings to see how a story moves from the page to the stage.

1. When we watch a story on a stage, what do we call the people who pretend to be the characters?

Answer: B) Actors

Actors are the people who use their voices and bodies to pretend to be characters in a play.

2. A play is a story that is meant to be performed for an audience.

Answer: A) True

Plays are special stories written so people can act them out on a stage for others to watch.

3. The special clothes that actors wear to look like a king, a cat, or a superhero are called _____.

Answer: B) Costumes

Costumes help the audience understand which character an actor is playing.

4. If a play is about a forest, what might you see on the stage to show where the characters are?

Answer: C) Trees and bushes

Scenery like trees and bushes helps the audience know the story is set in a forest.

5. In a play, characters only talk and never move their bodies.

Answer: B) False

Actors use both their voices and their movements to show how a character feels and what they are doing.

6. When the people watching the play clap their hands at the end, they are called the _____.

Answer: C) Audience

Name: _____ Date: _____

The audience is the group of people who come to watch and listen to the performance.

7. In the story of 'The Three Little Pigs,' who is the character that tries to blow the houses down?

Answer: A) The Big Bad Wolf

The Big Bad Wolf is the main character who creates the problem in this dramatic story.

8. Actors use 'props,' which are objects like wands or baskets, to help tell the story.

Answer: A) True

Props are the items actors hold or use on stage to make the story feel real.

9. If a character is smiling and dancing, how are they likely feeling?

Answer: C) Happy

Observing an actor's face and body helps us understand the character's emotions.

10. The person who helps all the actors learn where to stand and what to do is the _____.

Answer: B) Director

The director is the leader who helps the actors put the whole play together.
